

Athletics Might Win if Someone Would Kidnap Martin

B. A. A. OPENS BATTLE FOR TITLE SATURDAY WITH 3-GAME SKED

Two Buckeye Teams Engage Non-League Foes; Wesleyan to Syracuse.

By The Associated Press. COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 8.—Eight Buckeye Athletic association football teams will settle down to business over this week-end. Some will attempt to keep clean slates, while others will be trying to erase the memory of inglorious tangles with the big shots of football.

Wesleyan, Wabash, Wittenberg and DePaul remain in the unbeaten column, but have taken on nothing of note. Cincinnati, Miami, and Ohio each have one win and one loss, while Denison lost its opening game last Saturday.

Ohio should win little trouble in stowing away Denison although the Butler game last week may not have indicated the real strength of the Bobcats. Butler has been considerably weakened by a scholastic housecleaning.

Cincinnati will have a chance to show whether its 87 to 0 defeat at the hands of Ohio State was genuine or not when the Bearcats entertain DePaul Saturday at Cincinnati. DePaul hasn't had much trouble thus far while the cats have had plenty.

Wesleyan will take on a strong foe in Syracuse when the Blue opes humbled in their last meeting two years ago. Wesleyan seems to have a candy offense, a mediocre defense and only a few reserves. This will be the first of two east-west trips for the team of Gauthier as they take on Brown at Providence later in the season. A victory over Syracuse will place Wesleyan on the preferred list for the Buckeye title.

Up To "Jarge"

GEORGE EARNSHAW. When the Athletics face the Cardinals Friday in the sixth game of the World series it will more than likely be "Big Jarge" Earnshaw who is doing the twisting for the 1930 champs. Earnshaw is just about the last chance for the Mackmen, who will see their hope for three consecutive world titles blighted should the Cards win Friday.

Wittenberg will continue its night activities with Centre Friday night. Injuries sustained in the Carroll game last week may weaken Stobbs' team considerably and no weak Buckeye team can beat Centre.

From early season games Ohio still looks the class of the association. Wesleyan is stronger than last year, Cincinnati weaker than predictions. Denison stronger, Miami is developing fast, Wittenberg has another strong team and Wabash and DePaul remain unknown quantities with the shrewd Hoosiers looking for a dark horse in either.

AGAIN IT'S "PEPPER" WHO GIVES PUNCH TO CARDS' LINEUP

"Wild Yaboo" Drives in Four Runs To Beat Champs Single-Handed, 5-1.

BY EDWARD J. NEIL. Associated Press Sports Writer. Aboard the Cardinals special train enroute to St. Louis, Oct. 8.—The one man show that is the world series of 1931 moved westward today, into the land of the St. Louis Cardinals, practically the personal property of John Leonard "Pepper" Martin.

Never in all world series history, not even in the heyday of baseball's immortal Babe Ruth has a single individual so taken unto his own eager irrepressible self a drama of the magnitude of this world series struggle of the Philadelphia Athletics and the Red Birds from the banks of the Mississippi.

Five games have flowed under the baseball bridges since the world champion Athletics tangled for the first time with the National league champions. Today, as the series spreads westward, the Cardinals lead three to two in games and restlessly waiting to administer the coup de grace in this same "Pepper" Martin, just about the cause of it all.

There has been plying by big George Earnshaw, that for studied, painstaking brilliance has never been surpassed. The great warrior of the game, snarling, bitter, uncompromising, burlesque, Guinness hurled another two hit masterpiece. And wild Bill Hallahan, a superb little left hander, round of face and frail of body, twice has conquered the champions of the world, once without a run, allowing only three hits and again yesterday, 5 to 1.

These are prodigious world series feats and more amazing they came in succession. Yet the wonder of them fades and all the glory that would be theirs alone if it were not for this same Pepper Martin.

In the first game when lefty Grove pitched a loose victory, he hit away three times, drove in one run and scored the other. Personally he beat George Earnshaw in the second game, hitting safely twice, running bases madly, scoring twice. When the Cardinals were trouncing Grove in the third game, he led the way again with two hits. In Earnshaw's great two-hit victory it was Pepper who got them both.

Treasure Means Nothing But yesterday, with the series

Start Move To Form Harding Booster Club

The first move toward the formation of a Harding High Booster club was made last night at the Y. M. C. A. by a group of interested Marion business men. A group of approximately 35 met last night and laid temporary foundation for the organization of such a club within the next couple of weeks. No officers were elected last night. The leaders will be named at a meeting of the group sometime next week.

The purpose of the organization will be to promote a better cooperation between the citizens of the city and Harding High's athletic officials. A huge booster day is planned by the organization before the next home game of Harding on Oct. 24. Eucyrus will play Harding in a North Central Ohio league conflict on that date.

As soon as preliminary plans have been completed for the organization, a general call will be issued for all local sports fans who wish to join the organization. The only business transacted last night was the naming of a committee to look into the possible completion next winter of a new athletic field for Harding. Millard Hunt, Anson Pickens and Pearl Smith were named on the committee.

Harding school officials have for some time had a proposed site in view for a new athletic field but have been unable to complete the construction of the playing field. The site is located south of Mt. Vernon avenue near Willow street.

NEW COON LAW

Neimeyer Warns Sportsmen of Railing for Training Dogs.

O. J. Neimeyer, deputy state game protector has issued a new ruling of the Ohio state board of conservation concerning the training of coon dogs. Neimeyer asks the strict observance of the new rule by sportsmen and warns that prosecutions will follow all detected violations.

Heretofore it has been the policy of the conservation department to allow the training of dogs during the closed season, provided no injury was done to the pursued animals, no guns or climbers were carried and the landowners gave their consent.

This permission is withdrawn now during the night time for the period of Oct. 15 to Nov. 14. No dogs whatever will be allowed to roam or run in the woods and fields.

Six men — three pitchers and three infielders — from the 1931 Oklahoma City Western league club have been bought by Indianapolis of the American association.

Reports from Notre Dame's secret practices indicate that things are not so well with the raiders. The reserves used Northwestern plays yesterday and showed over three touchdowns against the varsity coach. Hank Anderson was disgusted and said in so many words, that Notre Dame looked like a sure shot to take a beating.

Illinois and Purdue, which will meet in the other Big Ten opener, are about ready. The Illinois left Bill Charlie, a good forward passer, when he suffered a collarbone fracture yesterday, but the rest of the squad is in good shape. The Boilermakers held a scrimmage yesterday and the boys took it so seriously that Coach Noble Kizer had to break up a couple of fist fights.

Ohio is still seeking replacements for injured linemen by the time Vanderbilt is met at Columbus, and Wisconsin is busy working up some new forward pass stunt to fire at Alabama-Poly.

Minnesota's board of strategy also is hunting for line replacements to use against Stanford Saturday.

Purple Gets Job. Northwestern suffered a cruel jolt to its hopes of ending Notre Dame's reign, when Red Russell, the fullback who battered the Irish line for important yardage last year, was declared out of action yesterday.

Russell suffered a cracked vertebra and a rib fracture against Nebraska and probably will play no more this season. Coach Dick Hanley moved Otis Olson, a sophomore, to full and his starting backfield when the Irish are met in Soldier field Saturday, will include only one veteran, halfback Pug Renner.

George Potter and Ken Mcenan, another pair of sophomores, will be the other starters.

PROTEGES OF MACK CONFIDENT OF TAKING TWO GAMES IN ROW

Philadelphia Apparently Unworried at Being Behind National Champions.

BY ALAN GOULD. Associated Press Sports Editor. Enroute to St. Louis with Athletics, Oct. 8.—The world champion Athletics sped westward today for the concluding world series drama looking and acting like anything but a club possibly on the verge of being shorn of its title. They know they must win the sixth game tomorrow at St. Louis to play a seventh game but they are already talking about the fun they will have with the Cardinals in the seventh and deciding contest. To a man they consider the sixth game and another deadlock theirs for the simple reason they do not see how George Livingston Earnshaw can lose.

Connie Mack smiles and says "yes, I have a lot of confidence in George." The players think Earnshaw certainly will pitch Friday and if he was they regard it likely the famous right-hander will start the seventh game Saturday, with Lefty Cochrane in reserve both days.

"The way I look at it," said Mickey Cochrane today, "Earnshaw has shown he can overpower the Cards—that is, all but this Martin. He has shown he can do the moon man stunt. He told me yesterday he felt like pitching. He pitched successive games in both the 1928 and 1930 series with only a day in between."

Earnshaw is one of the few who doesn't participate in the general hilarity of the world champions enroute. Big George prefers relaxation and a quiet conversation to the boisterous exchange of wisecracks or a poker game.

You hear plenty about a young gent named Martin in the gabfests of the world champions. "When Martin came to bat about the third time yesterday," remarked Cochrane, "I said to him: 'Say, kid, don't you ever pop out?' He came right back: 'I'm just in there swinging and getting the breaks.'"

Something New for A's. It is a new experience for the A's—this business of being raided, harassed and generally made to appear a trifle foolish by a rookie—but it has gone far enough now so that they can laugh about the sheer audacity and brilliance of the Cardinal outfielder.

"I don't know how to stop him," admitted Cochrane. "He has hit everything we have tried against him, high or low, fireballs or slowballs."

Mack's shake-up of his lineup in the fifth game with McNair replacing Bishop at second, Jim Moore going to the outfield in place of Haas was believed merely a one-day emergency measure designed to break wild Bill Hallahan's defense.

During 19 years of coaching football teams of Howard Jones won 128 games, lost 36 and tied nine for an average of 77%.

What a Rookie!

As far as St. Louis is concerned "Pepper" Martin has just about as good a chance to become President of the United States as any one else. The baseball fans of Old St. Lou would gladly vote for the rookie center fielder who has kept the Red Birds in the series with Philadelphia with his spectacular hitting and amazing feats of base running. As a rookie he's doing quite well—from the standpoint of the Cards. From the A's viewpoint he is not so hot.

SAINTS MANAGE TO BEAT RED WINGS 9-3

By The Associated Press. ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 8.—The St. Paul Saints, champions of the American association, may have to yield the "little world series" title to Rochester, but it won't be without a struggle.

Beaten four times in a row and apparently on the run, the Saints came back yesterday to trounce the International league champions, 9 to 3, and send the series into the seventh game.

Rochester, leading four games to two, needed to take only one of the three remaining contests to clinch the title.

OLYMPIC WRESTLER SIGNED FOR MONDAY NIGHT MAT BATTLE

Robin Reed To Meet Jack Domar in Main Co of Show Groom Card.

One of the sweetest wins in the world will step into the Shovel Gym arena on Monday night when Robin Reed, former Olympic wrestling champion and an outstanding contender for the world's professional title, meets Jack Domar of Toledo in the two best out of three main bout of the weekly mat show at the gym.

Reed, hailing from Reedsville, Ore., and boasting a string of consecutive victories on the mat without a draw or a defeat, is the uncrowned welter champ of the world.

That's what mat critics all over the middle west are calling him. Robin is now at the height of his eastern invasion and has not met defeat since his advent in this section or for two years previous to that in his home section on the Pacific coast.

In making his debut to West fans, he'll be meeting one of the most rugged of the middle west crop of 145 pounders in Domar. Jack is tough, make no mistake about that, and he'll provide a stiffest test he has ever encountered since his invasion of this section.

The semi final of next Monday night's show will see an old favorite (7) return to action here as "Cyclone Clyde" Robinson, the champion Missourian.

The "Cyclone" meets Usual Hot northern Ohio farmer boy in a 125 lb. 45-minute limit encounter that should be a whiz for Hot. The big rugged boy who will be able to stand even the rugged pace Robinson is sure to set.

One hundred seventy letter men an average of 17 for each institution will be back to try for place on Pacific Coast conference football teams this fall.

Stagg Plans New System Against Michigan Eleven

BY WILLIAM WEEKES, Associated Press Sports Writer.

CHICAGO, Oct. 8.—Coach Amos Stagg's fourth University of Chicago football team is not cast as capable of defeating Michigan's powerful eleven when they renew their rivalry for the twentieth time Saturday, but the "old man" is figuring on giving the Wolverines a surprisingly tough afternoon.

Stagg has just about enough men for one team with a few left over, and he is teaching his tiny squad a new offense—a system far different from anything a Maroon eleven ever has used. What it accomplishes against Michigan depends largely upon whether Pat Page, Jr., and Lou Kanne, a pair of regular backs, are eligible.

Chicago's "mystery" offense, however, has done nothing to make the Wolverines less than a huge favorite. Coach Harry Kipke has a veteran line, well fixed for reserves, and his sophomore backs have done so well that lettermen will be sitting on the bench when the contest starts in Michigan's huge stadium.

Northwestern suffered a cruel jolt to its hopes of ending Notre Dame's reign, when Red Russell, the fullback who battered the Irish line for important yardage last year, was declared out of action yesterday. EXPECT LARGE FAIR CROWD

Judges Finishing Work on Exhibits in County Farm Exposition.

BUCYRUS, Oct. 2.—With Thursday considered the "big day," many visitors are expected to attend the twenty-ninth annual Crawford county fair today. Friday's crowd will be augmented by several thousand school children.

Threatening weather caused attendance at the fair Wednesday to be considerably less than the same day on former years and caused postponement of all races scheduled for the afternoon.

Judges were finishing their work among the exhibits today, completing a task begun Wednesday. Large displays of crops this year are featured.

Night fair programs will be presented before the grand stand to night and Friday night by local communities. Music will be furnished by Gailon, Bucyrus and Crestline bands.

If You Get Up Nights

COUNTY OFFICIAL WINS ACQUITTAL

By The Associated Press
URBANA, O., Oct. 2.—Prosecuting Attorney William M. Vance of Champaign county was acquitted by Common Pleas Judge Frank M. Cleveland of Wilmington today on three charges of misconduct, on which an application for disbarment had been based.

Judge Cleveland denied the recommendation of the County Bar association for the disbarment of the prosecutor, but stated the committee did its duty by filing the charges after an investigation.

Vance had been accused of drawing $345 from the county treasurer for a special investigator, who the committee claimed, never existed, and with using his office to force settlement of an alimony case.

W. E. HANE NAMED LEGION TROOP HEAD

Reorganization of Bird-McGinnis Post Boy Scout Group Completed.

Walter E. Hane, American Legion sub-district chairman, was appointed scoutmaster of Boy Scout troop 5 last night in a meeting at the American Legion dining room on north High street. Hane will succeed Floyd Browne, city chemist and superintendent of the disposal plant, who resigned recently. Browne will continue with the troop in the capacity of assistant scoutmaster.

Troop 5 is sponsored by the Bird-McGinnis American Legion post No. 102.

The reorganization of the troop, which has been in progress for several weeks, was completed last night with the election of Wilbur Shannon as scribe and Herman Kluhn Jr. as senior patrol leader. Patrol leaders named were Richard Crow, Post Karl Bechtel, Beaver; Donald Carter, Raven, and Robert Carr, Buffalo. These patrol leaders were all members of the Fox patrol, Harding area champions and winners of a blue ribbon at the regional campfire at the Ohio State fair.

Other assistant scoutmasters are J. O. Tuttle, Jr., T. O. Showers, F. J. McDonald, Robert Cleveland and Robert Amner.

Ingrowing Toenail — Swift, Sure Help

Sank a tiny bit of cotton in Moore's Borehole Oil and gently pack it under the corner of the nail. Change the cotton twice a day, each time making the cotton plug just a little larger, until the edge of the nail is free.

Your toe will no longer pain you. The oil—marvelously soothing, penetrating, healing—instantly kills any infection, and soon softens the nail and surrounding cuticle so that you can easily lift it up.

Hickney & Cooper says if Borehole Oil doesn't correct your ingrowing nail, you can have your money back.—Adv.

REPORT HEAVY CORN YIELD

Average To Be Nearly 50 Bushels an Acre in Hardin County.

Special to The Star
KENTON, Oct. 2.—With the first of the 1931 corn crop now being husked indications are that the average yield per acre this year will be nearly twice the normal average yield of around 25 bushels according to Hardin County Farm Bureau officials.

The yield is one of the largest ever recorded in the county and resulted from favorable growing conditions in the district during the season.

While the average yield over a period of years is placed at around 20 bushels, the yield in 1930 was considerably below this mark because of unfavorable weather conditions during the growing season.

The corn received for milling at mills in the county during the last week has been of unusually fine quality uniformly solid and testing around 23.5 per cent moisture. The yield is expected to average well above 50 bushels to the acre, it was stated.

Elevators in the county expect to begin receiving the new crop in quantity during the coming week for shipping. The price is expected to be around 35 cents a hundred.

EAGLES OPEN FALL MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

State Vice President Addresses Local Lodgemen as Campaign Starts.

"Justice," declared F. W. Durbin, of Lima, in an address at a meeting of the local Eagles lodge last night, "demands that the government not only shall insure to its subjects security of life and personal liberty, but also shall grant them opportunity for the pursuit of happiness." Durbin is vice president of the state Eagles organization.

Mr. Durbin, who was an official visitor at the meeting, also said, "Justice, in a large part, means a fair share of the wealth created by the subjects of the government. For the wealth of a nation, its productive capacity, arises jointly from its natural resources and the labor of its inhabitants. A just distribution of that wealth is to be obtained only by patriotic investigation, seeking a scientific reform of our industrial system. Hated bred by class propaganda, must give way to the spirit of fraternity, if reforms are to be achieved at that will reduce to a minimum, poverty, on the one hand, and waste on the other."

The occasion was the opening meeting of the annual fall membership campaign and was followed by a banquet at which music was furnished by Leonard's Hawaiians. Five applications for membership were received at the meeting last night and the first class will be initiated Nov. 4.

BANKERS SPEED UP HOOVER PROGRAM

500-Million-Dollar Credit Corporation Reported Near Completion.

but Mr. Hoover is assured a definite program will be presented to him before his conference on home ownership and home building meets here Dec. 2. It was said authoritatively he is planning to present this program to the new congress for approval.

It is estimated on the basis of treasury data that from three to four billions in cash and credit should flow into commercial channels as Mr. Hoover's program to relieve the banking situation becomes effective.

The first emergency machinery, the voluntary bankers' pool of $500,000,000 to aid banks overloaded with frozen assets, will enable banks within a few days to take bonds and other high grade securities.

collateral out of their vaults and get real money loans for them with which to meet demands of depositors. Officials here say the effect of this will be to inspire immediate confidence. Bankers will be relieved of worry about meeting withdrawals. Depositors, knowing they can get money on demand, will rest easy.

Regarding the key-note: This move, while handled by bankers independently of the government, is regarded as the key-note of President Hoover's immediate efforts to buck up the morale of the nation and restore it to a sane judgment of real values.

Government officials expressed gratification today at the response of bankers to the plan. It was learned the treasury may recommend to congress a plan whereby Federal Reserve banks may aid defunct institutions by taking out sound assets and advancing cash which could be distributed to depositors.

While there was much discussion among senators and congressmen regarding Mr. Hoover's proposal for extension of the German moratorium, the matter will not become pressing until the visit of Premier Laval here later this month. At that time, Mr. Hoover has indicated, he will discuss plans for further suspension of reparations and war debt payments.

Congress will have the task of carrying out the next major portion of the Hoover plan. Party division is close. Many cross-currents will affect the voting. But there was a general disposition in both parties to support the broad objectives of the president except to the moratorium. Leaders at the White House conference approved the banking projects "in principle." The details are to be thrashed out by congress. They happen in this case to be all important.

Consider Federal Reserve Change
Senator Carter Glass, Democrat of Virginia, will call his subcommittee of the senate banking and currency committee together in about one month to frame legislation. The Hoover program asked congress to liberalize the Federal Reserve act, appropriate additional capital to the Federal Land banks to aid agriculture, and, if necessary, to create a government corporation similar to the war finance corporation to assist banks in trouble. A radical change in the policy of the Federal Reserve act is involved. Extended debate is expected over this. Federal reserve banks now can loan only on commercial paper maturing within 90 days and agricultural paper maturing within nine months.

PALMER INDUOSES PLAN
Ohio Farm Leader Sees Prospects of Aid for Agriculture.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 8.—Creation of an emergency credit corporation can be of as great value to the public as was the war finance corporation, L. D. Palmer, president of the Ohio Farm Bureau federation, said in commenting on President Hoover's proposal.

Palmer declared that the "lack of proper credit facilities has made this a more critical period for legitimate business and agricultural enterprises than has been faced in this country for a decade."

He said that through an emergency credit corporation the government could make available to discount privileges, to the end that banking institutions and local credit corporations which have an urgent call for funds, particularly in the agricultural field, could meet demands that were now being made upon them.

By United Press
PARIS, Oct. 8.—Premier Pierre Laval will propose that the United States adhere to a new treaty strengthening the Kellogg pact outlawing war when he visits President Hoover at Washington the United Press learned today.

The treaty will be modeled after the four power Pacific treaty of 1921 and will be framed to avoid entangling the United States in European affairs any further than the existing peace pact and disarmament treaties.

It was understood that Laval feels that the proposal will not involve a new departure in American policy, as it will apply the precedent set in the far east to European affairs.

It was also reported today that a movement was under way to have representatives of other European powers visit Washington with Laval or soon after his conversations with President Hoover.

The presence of Lord Reading, British foreign secretary, in Paris for conferences with French officials before Laval departs for Washington indicated British interest in the premier's visit.

By The Associated Press

KIDNAPERS TORTURE VICTIM THREE DAYS

St. Paul Business Man Finally Released by Captors Without Ransom.

By The Associated Press
ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 8.—Tortured and beaten, Morris Rutman, 27, woman's dress shop proprietor, was released by his kidnapers early today after being held prisoner three days at a White Bear lake cottage near here.

From a hospital bed where he was taken after making his way home, Rutman said a gang of seven men and a woman had poured alcohol over his body then touched matches to it, burning him severely. They demanded a ransom of $50,000, he said.

Chief of Police Thomas A. Brown said, however, $10,000 was demanded for his freedom but "not one cent was paid."

Friends reported some money had been paid by relatives but this could not be verified.

Rutman was abducted from his home Monday night as he chatted with his wife. The masked man, wielding a pistol, ordered him from the house and forced him into an automobile, where Rutman related today, three other men waited.

They beat him over the head, trussed him with rope, and covered him on the floor of the car with a blanket, he said. As near as he could determine he was taken to a cottage near White Bear lake, where three more men and a woman waited.

They tortured him when he refused to talk, he said.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Ready to Go

If you feel your body and mind and the world make you feel, you're a lot of miles, internal waste, all latrine, kidney, stomach, bowels and bladder full of poison. For they can't do it. They only move the poison and more poison down to get at the cause. The reason for your downcast-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out the poison of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest, it just decays in the bowels. You feel sick, you have a headache, you are a little, but sure and your health is bad, when you break out in a rash. Your liver and bowels are not doing their job. Your blood system is poisoned.

It seems those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are the only remedy of this downcast-out feeling and only one that "up and up." They cleanse your liver, stimulate your bowels, purify your blood, when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

Don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Beware of imitations. 25c at all stores. © 1921 C. M. Co.

with which we are to resist and subdue the calamity."

IT MAY COMFORT you a little, perhaps persuade you that the end of the world has not yet come, to learn that what you read above was published in Harper's Weekly on Oct. 10, 1857, seventy-four years ago.

In spite of all that gloom, and various civil war panics that followed it, the United States did come back.

And it will come back again, more prosperous than ever, more intelligent. Also let us hope that intelligence will take the form of forbidding high financial crooks to dump tons of millions of shares of worthless stocks on the gambling public.

ONE philosophical person, making the best of other men's troubles, says the depression will be good for the United States, "ridding us from our lethargy."

It will stir up new ideas, new resources, and that will be history repeating itself. Our ancestors a million years ago lived in a constant "depression." Their teeth were too feeble to compete with the wolf, their nails not strong enough to compete with the panther's claws. They could not climb away from danger like the monkey, or fly away from it like the bird. Therefore they had to use their brains. And on that necessity all our progress is based.

It is well also to be as thoughtful as an elephant and as persistent as a spider. It no longer suffers to be vice president of a trust company, so it out your chest and say, solemnly, "I suppose so."

This resolution would put the federation on record with a demand for government employment assurance; work insurance financed by state and federal aid; creation of a large reserve fund to support the unemployed in crisis; shorter working hours; state control of industry; and a "long range" plan of public works.

RESTFUL SLEEP for FRETFUL, FEVERISH CHILD

—With Castoria's regulation

When your child tosses and cries out of his sleep, it means he is not comfortable. Very often the trouble is that poisonous waste matter is not being carried off as it should be. Bowels need help—mild, gentle help—but effective. Just the kind Castoria gives. Castoria is a pure vegetable preparation made especially for children's ailments. It contains no harsh, harmful drugs, no narcotics. Don't let your child's sleep—and your own—be interrupted. A prompt dose of Castoria will purge stubborn little bowels to act. Then relaxed comfort and restful sleep! Genuine Castoria always has the name.

permanently. It doesn't agree with me."

"Oh," she frowned. "Do you really mean that?"

"I promise."

"But I don't understand," Sam said. "Why did you come at all, if not for that?"

"Ah," said Freddy ruefully, "there you have it! With unerring precision you have turned straight into the vitals of the problem. Why did I come, I wonder." He got to his feet and shook his head sadly. Do you know, Sam, I'm beginning to think that perhaps the old brain is slowly rotting. Perhaps I have begun to slip the long slip."

She sighed. "Would you mind talking sense?"

"I'm talking the most imperial kind of sense! I'm telling you that something cataclysmic has happened. I'm telling you that I, Frederick Munson, have traveled a matter of 400 weary miles for an entirely altruistic purpose. I have no axe to grind and no apples to sell. I'm rushing about doing good. I've become self-sacrificing, saintlike, noble! It's wonderful!"

"It's wonderful, all right," said Sam grimly. "You talk and talk, and yet nothing is said. In four words, what did you come for?"

"Have it your own way, be prosaic. I came, since you must know, in order to tell you that your mental processes resemble those of a child of six."

"Really?" Sam laughed with real amusement. "How interesting!" she commented.

"It isn't interesting at all," he contradicted severely. "It's distinctly annoying. Your mental processes have put me to no end of bother."

She laughed again. "I'm sorry, Freddy."

"I doubt if you're sorry at all," he frowned. Then he said abruptly: "What's all the shouting about, anyhow? Why the heros? Why the big fight scene? It's all foolishness. You love this bird Abbott and he loves you. That being the case, why not marry him? Why not act like an adult?"

Sam answered him in a low, even tone, but her face was flushed. "Look here, Freddy, I hate to be rude, but does it occur to you that perhaps you might be butting in? Don't you think that it might be possible I don't want to discuss my personal affairs with you—or with anybody?"

"Heart of a Wife"

Madge Tries To Put Some Meaning Into the Making of the Operation.

Chinese words. The man was delirious. It was plain, but there seemed to run through his delirium, some connected thread of thought, for not only did the name, "Lee Chow," recur at frequent intervals, but there were other associated words which, after a while I realized were being repeated.

This realization did not come to me for some time because of the dazed strained attention it was necessary for me to give to that incoherent babble. My "uncanny memory," as my friends call it, is a mechanical thing. I cannot force it into any particular channel. I can only listen to or look at the thing I wish to remember, shutting everything else away for the time being.

They Recognize a Repetition

Gradually, however, it came to me that just as the name "Lee Chow," had been repeated over and over, so this jargon of words with which I was charging my memory was being repeated over and over again.

I waited until I had assured myself of this, then, knowing that I already had memorized all that the delirious man had babbled, I relaxed my strained attention, and leaning back, tried to analyze the tones of the feeble, waiting voice.

It was relating something to an imaginary listener. I soon decided that, and it was but a step to another decision, that the wounded man thought he was addressing Lee Chow. I listened once more at the delirious man ran through his story. I learned toward Lillian, and over again, I think, I whispered, "Look over your notes, and see if you don't think so too."

She looked up in a dazed fashion, for she had been so absorbed in the difficult task of taking down the bizarre sounds that she had been as far away from anything else as I had. But it was only a second before her eyes were once more over her notes, and only a minute or two later before she looked up at me in confirmation of my statement.

The Surgeon Takes Charge

"You're right," she said. "Hurry, there's no use of our listening any longer, is there?"

The surgeon moved forward. "I am very glad you are willing to stop," he said, "because I should have given you only a few seconds longer. I must ask you all to go out now except Mrs. Dickolt."

Katherine moved quickly to his side, and as the rest of us went quickly out of the room, we saw her bending over the surgeon in

Jubilee's Partner
A Story of Boyhood Adventure
BY JUDITH M. LEWIS

TOMORROW will be Friday, and that will be another week nearer to next vacation. It can't come any too soon to please me. The best thing about vacation is that it comes in the summer when a fella can go swimming, and it is a good thing that berries and apples and things get ripe then. If they got ripe in the winter they would all be frozen before we could get to them. When I had let Jubilee down and went outside there had been a frost, and that was why it had been so cold. Frost would make anything cold, except the south end of a yellow jacket.

When I had got my milking done and had turned the cows out and went in the house my father was making a fire in the base-burner. He said we didn't really need it but he was tired of trying to save money by living in an ice house. He said if we were all to get pneumonia the doctor bill and maybe the funerals would cost more than the coal we would burn trying to keep warm. So now I will have to feed coal to that thing until next summer. He don't think I am smart enough to make the fire in it, but I am smart enough to lug the coal for it. He asked me when he was pulling on his coat how the grass was out in the pasture. I told him I didn't know but I would ask the cow, and everybody laughed and that didn't please him at all. He said he meant was there plenty of it for the cows, and I told him, "Yes sir," and he went to work with my uncle and I felt better, because I am most always sorry when I get funny with my father.

The girls didn't show up, so we thought we would go around past their houses, not that we care anything about them, but we have to go to school anyhow, so we might as well go that way as any other. When we got in front of Youniss

as HOT as you please

or COLD if you please

IF the autumn morning is crisp and clear, serve Shredded Wheat Hot. It's simple enough. Just pour hot milk over the biscuits instead of cold. You can't serve a better way. It doesn't cool while you're serving it—hot milk holds its warmth.

If the day promises the warmth of Indian Summer, serve Shredded Wheat with cool milk. Just heat the biscuits to retain their crispness, and add bananas or other fruit, if you like, then serve with milk or cream. Which ever way you serve Shredded Wheat, the result is the same. A delicious, healthful breakfast, easily served and warmly appreciated by every member of the family.
